

Have
You
Heard?

By Dorothy McCain Etsenius

OOPS!! We really goofed last week when we said last Wednesday was the deadline for buying tickets for the Soroptimist's trip to Carson City. The deadline is actually TODAY! So if you'd like to join a fun-loving crowd going to the Ormsby House on Saturday, get your tickets today at the Albany Times Office, the Senior Center, or Security Savings & Loan. They are $8 per person, with an $8 refund upon arrival. Buses will leave the City Hall parking lot at 7 a.m. and return sometime between 11 p.m. and midnight. So if you don't want to miss out on the fun—hurry and buy your tickets before tonight.

Don't fall for a telephone pitch asking you to buy tickets for a children's entertainment program to take place Sunday, Sept. 24, in the Berkeley Community Theater. The calls are being made by Pacific Productions' solicitors who give the impression that the money from the ticket sales will go to the JayCees (junior chamber of commerce). True, the firm is a member of the El Cerrito and Berkeley JayCees, in fact, for the first six months of this year they were members of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, until Chamber Manager, Hal Denham, persuaded the Albany JayCees not to take advantage of their promotional pitch.

Solicitors such as these never tell the donor that only a very small percentage of the money donated will ever be given to the local organization they claim to represent—in most cases only about 10 percent. Currently they are requesting that the money for tickets be mailed to JayCees, in care of an Albany post office box number—and if the people think it is connected with the Albany JayCees—let them, they didn't say so, did they???? If you want to make a donation, don't be misled by this type of solicitation—give the money personally to a member of the club or organization and know, for sure, that the entire amount will go to them, and not to some outside solicitor.

If in doubt, call the Albany Chamber of Commerce, 525-1771, or the Better Business Bureau, 839-5900.

And, speaking of the Chamber of Commerce . . . many, many thanks for the beautiful potted plant, which the Times received as a birthday gift. It's nice to be remembered by nice people, isn't it.

It's not too early to start thinking about Christmas shopping—and next Saturday, St. Ambrose Church will be holding its annual Bazaar—a wonderful place to buy gifts for friends, relatives or yourself.

Florence Asp and Patti Ponder, accompanied by friend husband, Frank Ponder, paid us a visit recently to give us a little preview of the lovely handmade items they will be selling—and at such reasonable prices. We almost bought out their

Little League Awards Presented At Banquet

Jim and Terri Scroggins were presented with "Mr. and Mrs." plaques, at the recent Albany Little League Awards Banquet, in recognition of their three years of service as League and Women's Auxiliary presidents, respectively.

Trophies were presented to all 15 sponsors of the National League winners, the Giants, a multi-sponsored team, managed by Joe Zupo for two of the three consecutive years they have held number one place.

Trophies were also presented to Bill Lewis, manager of the Senior Division winning Colts (also a multi-sponsored team); John Whitman and George Jaekle, managers of the second place team, the Astros, and Jerry Laternal, representing the team's sponsor, the Albany-El Cerrito Exchange Club.

Ken and Marietta Chammes were introduced as the incoming presidents, who will assume their new positions in October when Terri and Jim Scroggins vacate their positions.

Master of ceremonies for the event was Jack Rosano. He was assisted by Ken Chammes.

Out-of-District Students Discussed By Albany's New Supt. of Schools

Recently, a small group of citizens, who had expressed much concern about "out-of-district" students attending Albany Schools, were invited to meet with Charles McCully, new superintendent of Albany Unified School District; William Kilby, District business manager, and two Board of Education members, Jack Rosano, the president, and Robert Nehls.

"The most controversial issue I found when I arrived here," Superintendent McCully told the audience, "was the out-of-district students! People wanted to know 'What's going on?? What is the cost???' and many other ramifications."

"Before leading up to a policy to be adopted (by the Board)," he continued, "I wanted to talk face to face, with those people who wanted clarification and information, and to get as much input as I could before going to the Board with a proposal to adopt."

"I would never have stated in the past, that the out-of-district student in Albany was not costing the Albany taxpayer money because I think it was," McCully said emphatically. "However, I can guarantee that the taxpayers of Albany will not spend one cent to educate these student again," he promised.

According to a new law in California, those attending the meeting were informed, the district if the student's residence will claim the A.D.A. (Average Daily Attendance money paid by the State) and the district of attendance will bill the residence district for educational costs at the end of the school year. According to this, the Albany Unified School District will bill the Berkeley School District $1,080 for each Berkeley resident who attends the Albany schools etc.

"If the Albany School District had charged tuition for each one of the out-of-district students attending our schools during the 1972-73 school year, we would have received approximately $90,000 for those attending kindergarten through high school grades," the Superintendent estimated. "The district of

Public Hearing On Marin Avenue Set For Tuesday

The Albany Planning Commission has announced a public hearing to be held Tues., Sept. 25, at 8 p.m., in the City Council Chambers, to consider rezoning one block of Marin Avenue.

The change being considered, on the north side of Marin, between Evelyn and Talbot Avenue, would provide for professional offices adjacent to Albany Hospital. The proposal was initiated by a Resolution of Intention by the City Council.

Revision of the General Plan is in process, according to Sam Dows, Commission chairman, and the zoning must be compatible. The Commission is cognizant of the many considerations—along with the excellent Albany Hospital, the City needs additional professional facilities to augment medical care.

The Commission feels that the rezoning proposal has a great deal of merit, and concerns all residents of Albany. However, since "benefits" seem to create "problems," constructive discussion from interested residents will contribute substantially to the ultimate decision.

The Commission emphasizes that a public hearing is not a protest meeting—the purpose of the hearing is to elicit constructive suggestions. Recommendations by the Commission to the City Council will reflect the discussions and desires of the residents, for revision of the Albany General Plan.

Adult School Has Aviation Ground School Course

An Aviation Ground School course, designed to prepare the individual student to take the F.A.A. written Private Pilot's Examination, and to also serve as a refresher course for those who already have their Private Pilot's license, is being offered during the Fall Quarter session of the Albany Adult School.

Classes will meet Monday and Wednesday evenings, from 7 to 9:30 p.m., in Room 110 at Albany High School, 603 Key Route Blvd. Sessions, under the direction of John Ralff, F.A.A. licensed flight instructor, will begin this week and continue through Dec. 1. Registration is $6 and will be accepted anytime this week.

Note of Thanks

I would like to thank our wonderful Fire Department and our wonderful neighbors, especially Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hughes, for their help in saving our home when it caught on fire recently.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Mary de Bos & Family,

Sign-Up Opens For Competition

Registration for the 1973 "Punt, Pass and Kick" competition, co-sponsored by the Albany Parks and Recreation Dept. and Jim Woulfe Ford Dealers in Albany, continue to roll in.

The contest is open to any youngster eight through 13 years of age, and youngsters meeting the age requirements, and who can punt, pass or kick a football—or who'd like to try—are urged to sign-up. Participants will only compete in three categories—punting, passing and kicking. Judges will score 1 point for each foot the ball travels on the fly, minus 1 point for each foot the ball lands to the right or left of the center tape.

Youngsters, accompanied by a parent or guardian, may register at the Parks and Recreation Dept., 1000 San Pablo Ave., in City Hall or at Jim Woulfe Ford, 836 San Pablo Ave., Albany. There is no charge for registration.

NOTICE

Four teacher-aides are needed to assist in the Albany School's Early Childhood Education Program.

Those interested must file a written application with the Albany Unified School District by Friday, Sept. 21. These applications are available at the District's office at 904 Talbot Ave.

Lindh To Visit Soroptimist Club

"Micronesia — Land of Tiny Islands," will be the theme of a slide show and talk, to be given by former Albany resident, Carl Lindh, at the Club's noon meeting, Wed., Sept. 26, at Serb's Restaurant, 1045 San Pablo Ave., Albany.

Mr. Lindh, a former Albany Police sergeant, is currently heading the Mariana Islands' Public Security Dept., which covers the Police Dept., Fire Dept., and other services for the island group.

The public is cordially invited to attend, according to Grace Dinsdale, Soroptimist Club president, and Patricia George, program chairman for the day.

Walker's Pie Shop Makes Some Changes

Walker's Pie Shop, a friendly and familiar eating spot for many Berkeley and Albany residents, is announcing a few changes and, at the same time, assuring all their old friends that the Walker family is still in charge and still preparing the same fine fresh food and pies on a daily basis.

With Dennis Foye retiring in favor of his education, the anchorman for dinner will be Peter Sloan, who has been with Walker's for three years. It will be up to him to serve the currently offered special dinners, "Ingenuity a la Maison," which is Walker's way of coping with the current short supply of meat.

Opened in 1964 to sell and serve pies and lunch, Walker's began serving dinner two years ago in the tradition first established by Jack and Dorothy Walker, originally at Vine and Shattuck in the late 1950's, then at the Heather and Thistle Restaurant on Solano Avenue.

Doug Walker, son of Dorothy and Jack and a veteran of the family's restaurant business, will continue to make the famous pies which attract customers from all over the Bay Area. He will also be on hand to serve lunch at this popular shop.

Along with these changes, the shop, which is located at 1491 Solano Avenue, is sporting a facelift with new decor coordinated by Carol Walker, sister to Doug. New hours are also being announced: Breakfast, 8-11 a.m.; Lunch, 11-3 p.m.; and Dinner from 5-8 p.m., which is a half-hour longer than the previous 7:30 closing time. There will be no table service between 3 and 5 p.m., but pies to go will be available. The shop is closed Sunday and Monday.

For further information, call Walker's Pie Shop, 525-4647.

Bob Cats Tie Napa, Vacaville Is Next

Albany's Pop Warner "Bob Cats" tied with Napa, in a 6-6 game played last Sunday on the Albany home field. This game can be seen locally on TV Cable Channel 6 on Sat., Sept. 22 at 6 p.m.

The next regularly scheduled game for the Bob Cats will be another home game at Cougar Field, when they take on the Vacaville team at 1:30 p.m., Sat., Sept. 22.

All Pop Warner games are open to the public, free of charge, and local residents are urged to attend and lend encouragement to the home team.

Albany Council To Enforce Ordinance On 'Group Living'

Mayor Lewis Howell emphasized, at last week's City Council meeting, held on Tues., Sept. 11, that the City of Albany has an ordinance controlling the number of unrelated persons living in a single family dwelling and he would like to see the City Council and the Chief of Police enforce it.

The matter was brought up by Councilman Joe Carlevaro, who noted that several Bay Area cities are passing ordinances to restrict the practice of college students, who are grouping together under one roof to cut living costs. Councilman Carlevaro indicated he had received several complaints concerning the matter, and a member of the audience, Charles Grassi of 903 Key Route, spoke regarding the problem which seems to exist at 909 Key Route where a number of persons appear to be residing in a single family dwelling, causing a severe parking problem in the area, and that people were seen coming and going at all hours.

During a public hearing, at the same meeting, the Council heard a report from the planning consultant firm of Duncan & Jones, represented by Joan Lamphier, in which she reviewed the present open space in the City and made suggestions as to future open space, including the Albany shoreline.

The four Councilmen attending the meeting (Councilman Richard Clark was absent again), passed a resolution approving the agreement with the Albany School District for nursing care and approved agreement with the School District for a joint after school program. They also approved an ordinance to amend Section 20.66 of the Albany City Code, in respect to street vendors.

Law Class Starts Tonight At AHS

A class entitled LAW FOR THE LAYMAN covering Wills and probating estates, including Inheritance and Estate Taxes, and deeds of trust, the rights of husbands and wives, advantages and disadvantages of joint tenancy property, contracts, and other related legal subjects affecting every day practical law, will be conducted in the Albany Adult High School, Key Route Boulevard and Thousand Oaks Boulevard, Albany, California by STANLEY R. KENDALL, a Berkeley practicing attorney.

The class will meet six (6) Wednesday nights from 7 to 9 p.m., commencing on Wednesday night, September 19, 1973.

The class is especially designed to inform the public as to the different types of Wills, the taxes involved upon death, and taxes involving gift transfers of property, along with the statutory cost of probating estates.

Want To Learn To Play The Guitar?

Beginning and intermediate folk guitar instructions will be given on Tuesdays, starting Sept. 25, by guitarist Peter Shevitz.

Students age 10 through adults may register for the classes being offered by the Kensington Community Council. Beginners classes will be held from 7 to 8 p.m., and will cover the proper placement of the fingers, tuning, chord positions, and simple fingering patterns for strums.

To qualify for the intermediate class, which will be held from 8 to 9 p.m., the students must know about 10 chords and three strumming patterns. Picking, transposing and some improvisations will be taught in this class.

The six-week course will cost $7, and those interested may bring their fee and sign up at the Kensington Community Council, 59 Arlington Ave., Kensington.

Bond Committee To Meet Tonight at 8

Albany Citizens' Bond Committee will meet tonight, Wednesday, September 19, at 8 p.m. in Cornell School Cafeteria to make plans for the November 6 school bond election.

A new Bond Committee chairman will be chosen at the meeting.

All interested citizens are urged to attend.

In other action, Council members set a public hearing date of Dec. 3, to hear and act upon the home occupation permit of R. L. McCrary of 1429 Thousand Oaks Blvd., which would be after the present 90-day freeze on home occupation permits has expired.

Upon Councilman Hubert Call's motion, the Council voted to hold any communications concerning the McCrary matter, until the public hearing.

In response to a communication from Eugene B. Hill, vice-president of Interstate General Development Corp., requesting approval of a lease program for the parking spaces at their Albany Hill site, so they could obtain the "pink copy" or preliminary sub-division public report from the State Dept. of Real Estate, the Council instructed that IGDC be notified that the City has no objection to lease-ing of spaces, as long as they comply with the provisions of the use permit to supply the necessary number of parking spaces.

Under the "good of the City," Councilman Carlevaro stated he had received numerous calls regarding the current tax rate for the City. He explained that although the current tax rate was $2.04, five cents over last year's $1.99, the City had not raised the taxes. The five cent increase was the result of a court decision concerning the pension fund for the Police and Fire Departments.

Councilman Hubert Call indicated he too had been receiving calls regarding the increase, and wanted it known that the Council had held the tax rate to that of last year, but that a court order had necessitated the five-cent increase for the pension fund.

City Council Meeting Is Short But Fruitful

The Albany City Council approved the application of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Werronen to operate massage establishment in connection with the Albany Steam Baths, located at 1002 Solano Avenue. This was merely a routine matter, so to speak, as the Steam Baths had been offering massages ever since they have been in business.

At the public hearing on the application, communications were read from Sam Dows, chairman of the Planning & Zoning Commission; Fire Chief Gerald Browne and Chief of Police James Simmons, and City Administrative Officer, James Turner. All agreed there were no objections, since the establishment had been thoroughly checked and no violations of the safety code had been found and they were operating in compliance with the regulations of the building code.

"I have known the Werronens for years," said Mayor Lewis Howell, "and they have been operating an outstanding business in our community. It's too bad there aren't more like it."

In other business conducted during the short Council meeting Monday night, Council members referred a communication from Eugene C. Johnston of Ramona Avenue, regarding home occupation permits, to the future workshop on permits they will hold jointly with the Planning & Zoning Commission and referred a letter from Miss Jane Quarfoot of Pomona Ave., protesting BART train noises, to City Administrative Officer Turner, who is working with the transit company on the problem.

The Council also approved a request from Sam Dows, Albany chairman for United Nations Day, to use the City Hall display case for a UN exhibit Oct. 15-31.

A communication from Helen Putnam, Mayor of the City of Petaluma, was filed as informative. The letter requested financial support for their so-called orderly plan for non-chaotic growth in their City, which is now being legally challenged by two building associations and two property owners.

In discussing the plan, Councilman Joe Carlevaro said a plan such as this would, in his opinion, jeopardize the US Constitution, by obstructing the free movement of people. Mayor Howell, in agreeing with Councilman Carlevaro, stated that "people should have the right to move as they want to. Most people in California have come here from other states, including myself. To restrict this movement would be carrying the Constitution too far."

Two communications, from Chief of Police James Simmons, too late for the agenda, were also approved. One requested approval of the hiring of James Tighe, as part-time civilian clerk in the Police Department. The other request asked that the Mayor execute an agreement of non-liability with the Southern Pacific Company, for the use of their Hoffman Blvd. pistol range by members of the Albany Police Dept.

City Attorney Larry Saler was instructed to prepare the necessary resolutions pertaining to Simmons' request.

Albany resident, Herbert Rubin, told the Council he was pleased with the City's acquisition of Albany Hill property for parks and permanent open space, and asked if a map could be prepared indicating just what the total acreage included. The Council instructed the City Administrative Officer to prepare the requested map.

AFS Scholarship Deadline Oct. 1

Albany High School senior, Helen Belden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Belden of Brighton Avenue, is busy telling AHS students about her two-month participation in the American Field Service "Americans Aboard" program this summer, and urging them to apply for the program themselves.

Helen, who spent the summer on the Island of Crete, is being joined in explaining the international scholarship program by Jaime Valleclia, an AFS exchange student from Cali, Columbia, who is living with the Eugene Hellwig family on Brighton Avenue while she attends Albany High School this year.

Both girls are urging local juniors and seniors, who are interested in sharing life in a new environment, with a different culture and set of values, to learn more about the AFS program.

Details and applications for next year's program are now available in the office of Albany High School's vice-principal, Jim Walker. Applications must be returned by October 1 and interviews of those interested will start soon.

CHURCH NEWS

Albany Church of the Nazarene, 850 Talbot, invites the public to attend special services with Rev. Nelson Mink, Sunday, Sept. 23 through Sunday, Sept. 30. Sunday services will be at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., week night services will begin at 7:30 p.m., and no service will be held Saturday evening. Nursery care will be provided for small children.

Rev. Mink, who recently retired from a pastorate at Arcadia, California, is also a retired missionary, with a great capacity for memorizing scriptures and poetry. He is also a talented singer and guitarist.

Rev. Dale Johnson will be the guest speaker at both the 11 a.m. and the 7 p.m. services at the First Baptist Church, 1319

Solano Ave. Rev. Johnson is the former Pastor of the Thousand Oaks Baptist Church in North Berkeley.

Mr. James Ball will be the Lay Leader for this Sunday. The Senior Choir will be featured at the morning services and the Youth Choir will sing in the evening. Sunday School for all ages begins at 9:45 a.m. each Sunday.

The Junior Choir, composed of primary and junior age boys and girls, is starting again this fall, with rehearsals being held each Friday at 7 p.m. in the Church social hall. New participants are most welcome to attend the rehearsals, according to directors, Mrs. Wallace Hill and Mrs. Robert Neiderheiser.

An Eucemical Interchange, focused on the theme "Tomorrow, Together," will take place

Wed., Sept. 26, at 1:30 p.m. at the Pacific School of Religion, 1789 Scenic Ave., Berkeley, under the joint sponsorship of the Berkeley-Albany unit of Church Women United and the Graduate Theological Union Guild.

A short film and discussion of the struggles of religious and ethnic groups involving the quality of life of our decade, and how the groups are struggling with such issues as justice, racism, ecology and other related subjects will be featured on the program.

A worship service and community singing, followed by the serving of refreshments, will conclude the event, according to Mrs. Leslie Burman of Albany, president of the Berkeley-Albany Church Women United and Mrs. Anna Hodgkin of the Graduate Theological Union Guild.

Nationally-Known Real Estate Firm Opens New Albany Office

David Robinson, president of Robinson Gallery of Homes, 1654 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley, has announced the expansion of his company, with the recent opening of a branch office at 1300 Solano Ave., Albany.

The public is cordially invited to visit the new offices during the grand opening. The Gallery of Homes offices features a living-room decor, a far cry from the customary real estate office atmosphere. Shadow boxes, with lighted color prints of all listings, give a 24-hour-a-day display and advertising of all homes for sale.

The Rev. James P. P. Harbour, who has been assisting at St. Alban's Episcopal Church, is scheduled to officiate and preach at the 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. services of Morning Prayer on Sunday, September 23, 1973.

During the 10 a.m. service, child care is directed by Miss Polly Allen. At the same time there will be Church School classes for children through the fourth grade. Staff members are Mrs. M. C. Counsel, Mrs. James Rosenquist, and Miss Karen Rosenquist.

Parish members are busily preparing for the Annual Bazaar which will take place Saturday, September 29 from 10-3. The Rev. Warren Debenham, who will officially assume his ministerial duties on October 1, is planning to attend the Bazaar. An informal Pot Luck Supper will round out the day.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship and share the fellowship at St. Alban's 1501 Washington Ave., corner of Curtis St., Albany.

Mr. Robinson has also announced that Ruth Altamirano will head the sales management department of the new office, assisted by specially trained sales counselors.

Due to the rapid growth of this nationally-known organization, Robinson stated that his company is receiving referrals from many other offices in 1400 locations throughout the country. Purchasers seeking property in the Berkeley, Albany and Kensington areas are attracted by advertising in United, Delta, and P.S.A. air line magazines. In addition, the organization also uses regular ads in the Wall Street Journal, National Photo magazine, along with regular local area advertising.

The Gallery of Homes is also the recognized leader in national relocation services, offering equity "cash-advance" programs or "cash-out" programs for people being transferred from this area.

NOTICE

Sign-ups are still being accepted for those interested in CYO (Catholic Youth Organization) basketball, on Monday and Wednesday evenings, between 7 and 8 p.m., at 842 San Carlos Ave., Albany.

WHAT'S HAPPENING TO YOUR GAS AND ELECTRIC BILL?

You won't like it. We don't like it. But it's happening. Your monthly utility bill is going to get bigger and bigger.

Here's a look at the reasons why.

HIGHER FUEL COSTS.

Most of our steam-electric power plants are fueled by natural gas or oil. Unfortunately the cost of both fuels has gone up and will go up higher.

The search for new gas supplies, including exploration in Canada and the Alaskan north slope, is expensive. Such gas will cost more initially, and bringing it from greater distances will add to its price. Alternatives such as gas made from oil or coal, and imported liquefied natural gas could cost even more.

Besides natural gas, low-sulfur oil is the only acceptable fossil fuel for these steam-electric power plants under present air pollution control standards. And we have to pay high premium prices for low-sulfur oil.

CONSTRUCTION SCHEDULE DELAYS.

Regulatory procedures, requiring 30 or more permits from public agencies, are taking longer and longer. And new laws and regulations have established more complicated procedures for plant siting and construction. All these slow down construction schedules, and inflation alone is adding substantially to costs during these periods of delay.

ENVIRONMENTAL COSTS.

Communities have become a lot more attractive since we started putting power lines underground. But it costs money. So does building and landscaping esthetically pleasing plants, minimizing stack emissions and cooling water discharged from power plants. In fact, during the 1973-1976 period PG&E's environmental expenditures will exceed $300 million.

HIGHER INTEREST RATES.

Utilities are "capital intensive" industries. That means, when we build new facilities we have to raise vast sums of capital ($450 million this year). And interest rates have risen from about 4½% in 1965 to about 8% today. Interest alone adds millions to the cost of supplying you with dependable utility service.

All these factors, plus continuing inflationary pressures which affect every business, result in higher costs for PG&E and higher bills for you.

The era of plentiful natural gas and electricity at the low rates you have become accustomed to is over. But considering all it does for you and your family, utility service will continue to be a household bargain. PG&E is doing its best to hold down costs wherever possible, without sacrificing the environment or the quality and reliability of your service.

You can help—by not wasting gas or electricity.

Family Communication Course
Offered By The Adult School

The parent education course "Families Without Failure" will be one of the curricular offerings of the Albany Adult School this Fall. The class will be led by two Albany school district counselors, Annette Allen and Millicent Reguzzoni.

This course will help parents learn how to listen to children and to communicate values and feelings without causing communication breakdowns. Practice in communication skills, active listening, and problem solving will be emphasized. Meetings are scheduled at Albany High School on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 starting September 19.

entire stock on sight . . . lovely hand-crocheted sweaters, beautiful hand-made vests (just the thing for those new slacks), unusual and colorful scarves that can be used in several ways with sweaters and blouses, and a big variety of darling Christmas decorations and gift items—even some small, inexpensive ones for children who will be doing their holiday shopping.

If you don't make this event, you will be sorry, as you will certainly be missing a wonderful opportunity to do your pocket-book a favor and you will probably want to keep everything for yourself instead of giving it away. Happy shopping—and don't forget they will also be selling food and home-baked goodies to take home.

Jimmy Allen, son of Joy and Chuck Allen of Albany, and recent graduate of Albany High School, is the youngest member of the Chico State varsity squad and spent his 18th birthday, last Friday, flying to Salem, Oregon to participate in a game against William University. Out of a squad of 67, only 38 were picked to go to Oregon—and "our" Jimmy was one. How about that!!

Have You Heard? Albany Girl Makes Volunteer Record At Herrick Hospital

A crowd of approximately 100 proud parents and bubbling teenagers gathered at Herrick Memorial Hospital in Berkeley recently, for the annual Junior Volunteers' Recognition Ceremony, which honored fifty girls and two boys, for their contributions to the hospital.

Among those being honored was Hilary Adair, sixteen year old Albany High School Sophomore, who has accumulated 1,000 hours of service—more than any other junior volunteer in the hospital's history.

Other Albany teenagers who received recognition for their service hours were: Julia and Valla Hogg and Pat Hritz.

Also honored were: Diane and Judith Greco, Felicia Hermann, Nancy Ventin, Dianne Furuya, Alice and Margaret Morris, Lois Oyama, Sheila Tramble and Lauren Terry, all of El Cerrito, and Brenda Gehman, Freda Hokom and Laura Rice of Kensington.

Junior volunteers' duties at the hospital include "a little of everything"—from running errands to making beds and comforting the patients. "Being a junior volunteer is a lot nicer than I ever thought it would be," admits Hilary Adair. "I really feel like I'm part of the staff—not just 'that little candy-striper'."

Mrs. Betty Yourd, assistant to the director of Volunteer Services, noted: "These girls and boys have helped the hospital tremendously by doing countless errands and helping our patients. I hope to see them return in the coming year."

HILARY ADAIR of Albany beams her approval at being honored for her 1,000 hours of volunteer service as a Herrick Hospital "candy striper." Hilary, who at one time shuddered at the thought of being in a hospital, now has decided to make nursing her career.

Out-of District Students

residence is going a foot the bill from now on, regardless of where these kids go to school," he further promised.

When Councilman Joe Carlevaro, who attended the meeting with Councilman Hubert Call, commented that if our School District didn't accept these students, maybe the classes for our own students could be made smaller, the District's business manager, Bill Kilby, called attention to the fact that the out-of-district students are spread over all grades, averaging only 3 per grade. Eliminating them from these classes would not make that much difference. But, at high school level, where there are 14, 19 and 21 in grades 10, 11 and 12, the difference would be more noticeable. However, the totals for these latter grades are expected to be reduced noticeably within the next two years.

"I don't think we, or any other school district, will be in a position to say we absolutely refuse to accept any out-of-district student," McCully commented, as he explained that according to the law "you cannot deny a child an education." If the County Board of Education thinks there is a good reason for students to attend schools other than in their own district, they must be accepted.

"However," he emphasized, "if we have a student from another district who is giving us trouble, we are not going to put up with it. We can revoke the permit to attend our schools at any time. We have enough problems of our own—we don't have to spend our time, energy and money taking care of other district's problems."

"But the first thing we want to do," said the Superintendent, "is to make sure that Albany taxpayers will not have to pay to educate out-of-district students. The next is to make sure that any out-of-district student who is detrimental to Albany will be out!"

Business manager Kilby noted that the District cannot apply the same "hard and fast rules" to all cases, because each one probably has a different set of circumstances as to why that particular student cannot attend school in his or her own district. However, he noted, it may be possible in the future, to accept out-of-district students on a one-to-one basis, only.

In agreeing with Kilby's statement, Superintendent McCully stated that he hoped to make public statement within a week or so, that the Albany Unified School District will not be accepting any more out-of-district students this year. He also said he would like to send letters to neighboring school districts so stating.

"I would like never to have to exceed the level we are at right now," he said, "except on a one-to-one basis—if we accept one of their students, they must accept one of ours."

According to the report of inter-district attendance, given those at the meeting, there are 29 students from Albany attending Berkeley schools, while 88 Berkeley residents are attending our schools. Albany students now in Richmond schools total 11, while 47 Richmond residents are coming to Albany.

What do you do with a flag-napper? You make him cough up with $100 to replace the Albany flag—when you catch him! According to reports — some time between 12 and 12:30 a.m., Sunday morning, someone — or possibly a group—took down our landmark flag near the freeway. A nearby resident phoned to say she had heard voices and the sound of tires screeching in a quick takeoff from vicinity of the flagpole, but so far no one has been caught. If anyone would like to make a donation to help defray the cost of replacing the flag, the Albany Chamber of Commerce will be most grateful—as will the citizens of our town, who are so proud of the flag waving over our city.

The Mail Bag

Editor, Albany Times:
The Friends of Albany Library, Inc. want to thank all people who helped us in any way with our recent book sale held in July. People who contributed books, those who helped with publicity, posters and sign boards, others let us use their windows for advertising, people who helped with the sorting and pricing, hauling the books to the Cornell Cafeteria, the helpers on the sale days, the faithful members of Friends, the Boy Scouts who earned Community Service awards for their participation and last but not least the clean-up squad.

To the School Administration, our appreciation, because the use of the Cornell Cafeteria is a big reason for our success. It is spacious, accessible and can be used two days for a worthwhile community endeavor. Those who bought books helped us reach the unexpected sum of $1352.42. We truly were overwhelmed by the success of our sale during a vacation period.

Thank you citizens of Albany and our surrounding communities for your support.
Also a great big "thank you" to the Albany Times, from the Friends of the Albany Library Inc. We appreciate your generosity in publicizing our recent most successful book sale, and the year-round activities of our group.
Mary Hartung
Co-ordinator for Friends of Albany Library, Inc.

Editor, Albany Times:
Re: UNITED NATIONS DAY—

October 24
I don't really know much about Africa, except what I have read. We have been there, briefly: from Egypt and Morocco on the north to South Africa; across the continent from Kenya, through Nigeria to Senegal. We travelled by air and auto. We saw the people, both wealthy and destitute. What we read now evokes mental pictures of the land and its people.
We have seen the United Nations programs in action and have observed some of the beneficiaries of those programs. Refugees from flood and famine or from war torn lands are homeless and hungry. They carry their worldly possessions in a small bundle. The UN has not solved all the age-old problems of the Earth, but is working on them, in concert with many other programs which it helps to coordinate. In just 28 years of UN activity, health, education and welfare have been brought to people who were formerly without hope.

We are home now, "suffering" from the shortage of New York cuts, the high cost of grapes, lettuce and bread, scarcity of gasoline, and inflation in general. The victims of floods in India or drought in Africa are lucky. They don't worry about inflation. In some ways, knowing a little about these people helps me through my "suffering."

I still get mad at Congress for doing nothing. I am often provoked at labor leaders and their jurisdictional strikes. Industries and merchants burn me up with some of their excuses for raising prices while they cut back on quality of goods and services. But with all these troubles, I never had it so good.
One thing we do extremely well is help others. Our outpouring of charity — large and small — is magnificent. Therein lies our salvation. I recommend popular support of the UN — its social and economic programs. Wars are political. They occur when nations fail to work together. I am convinced that peace on earth has its greatest hope if we will use the worldwide UN forum to alleviate the cause of war — WANT. With popular support the UN can improve the balance between "haves" and the "have nots." When that is accomplished, the people will prefer butter to guns — if they have butter. The soil will be less fertile for the seeds of war.

Col. Sam R. Dows (Ret.)
Albany UN Day Chairman

The Albany Ladies Auxiliary will hold their annual White Elephant Auction, at 7:30 p.m., Wed., Sept. 26, at the home of Mrs. Richard McSheehy, 1047 Evelyn Ave.
Admission will be one white elephant, and members are encouraged to bring their friends for an evening of fun, according to Mrs. Ken Symington, who has planned delicious refreshments and secured many door prizes to be awarded the lucky winners. Proceeds from the auction will be directed to various community projects.
The Auxiliary will resume their regular monthly meetings in October, according to Mrs. Raul Miranda, president.

SAFEWAY

USDA CHOICE

In order to feature lower prices, some other stores buy meat of lower grades. Some others mix USDA CHOICE and lower grades. Some coin fancy names for the lower grades they sell. At SAFEWAY, every fresh cut of steak and roast of beef is USDA CHOICE grade... the grade awarded to meat that will deliver tender, juicy, flavorful cuts.
